Detailed description: This is a musical score for four voices: Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass. The score is written in a single system with four staves. The lyrics are: "real - ly there_____ Then sure - ly we shall meet a - gain." The music is in a common time signature. The Soprano part starts with a dotted quarter note, followed by a quarter note, then a half note with a slur. The Alto part starts with a dotted quarter note, followed by a quarter note, then a half note with a slur. The Tenor part starts with a dotted quarter note, followed by a quarter note, then a half note with a slur. The Bass part starts with a dotted quarter note, followed by a quarter note, then a half note with a slur. The lyrics are aligned with the notes. The word "real" is under the first note, "ly" under the second, "there" under the third, "Then" under the fourth, "sure" under the fifth, "ly" under the sixth, "we" under the seventh, "shall" under the eighth, "meet" under the ninth, "a" under the tenth, and "gain." under the eleventh.

Chorus:

And when I get to that peaceful harbour
That in my dreams I know so well
If I can get there, if it is really there
Then surely we shall meet again.

1. Oh this world is so full of mystery
And there's magic all around
All through my life I will be searching
For a secret never to be found

Chorus:

2. Through deepest forests and over mountains
And all along the lonely shore
Down gloomy streets of distant cities
I will search for ever more

Chorus:

3. Through the mist above the hilltops
There floats a song on the wind
I thought I heard the sweetest harmonies
I thought I heard the angels sing.

Chorus:
