Chorus

This time again, This time again,
We'll not see this time again,
This time again, This time again,
We'll not see this time again.

In all the world there'll never be
Such a time as this again
For who can tell what will befall
Before we meet again.

There will be changes to our lives,
Maybe sorrows and maybe joys
And many bridges to be crossed
Before we meet again.

I'll see your likeness everywhere
In the face of every friend,
I'll hear your voice in quite lands
Until we meet again.

From the injustice all around
And the sorrows and the pain
A better time will surely come
Before we meet again.

So take good care in all you do
And keep your spirits high,
My thoughts will always be with you
Until we meet again.
