

Trust in Me

Anne Gregson

1
Come trust in me I'll nev-er let_ you down I'm_ on your side

6
I will not fail Come trust in me I'll nev-er let_ you

11
down Through wind and hail love_ will pre - vail

Chorus: Come trust in me, I'll never let you down
 I'm on your side, I will not fail
 Come trust in me, I'll never let you down
 Through wind and hail love will prevail

When all the winter's storms are over and past
The spring will surely come again
And you will walk through groves of flowering trees
With one who truly is your friend

I know the road that you have travelled is long
It's dark and lonely and cold and bleak
But keep on walking all the way to the end
There you'll find all the joys you seek.

I know you've crossed the blazing fires of hell
You've been misused and much deceived
But loving arms are here to comfort you now
By one who's love can be believed.

Don't be afraid. these pleasures won't disappear
There is a love that will not grow stale
And through the years you'll always be just as dear
The truest love will still prevail.